Coopers Crossing was assessed against two comparable communities in the City of Airdrie.

Compared to these other communities, Coopers Crossing only accounted for 22% of the 1830 total RCMP-noted occurrences across the 3 communities.

Types of Occurrences

Per the RCMP report:

- ▶ Top 10 occurrence types account for 56% of the total number of occurrences (1830). None of the top 10 occurrence types were criminal code occurrences. Rather:
 - ▶ 4 of the top 10 are traffic enforcement (pro-active policing) occurrences; and
 - ▶ 6 of the top 10 were related to requests for police service related to non-criminal activities.
- ▶ Although generally lower overall, there were significantly more Suspicious Person/Vehicle/Property occurrences in Coopers Crossing than the other atoms. This may be indicative of a more vigilant community.

Additionally, year-over-year for January and February 2020 vs 2021, Coopers Crossing has seen a decrease in the number of occurrences reported to the RCMP.
